Recertify and reinvest in yourself.

NCTRC knows how hard you worked to obtain the CTRS® credential. Continue your professional journey by renewing your CTRS® certification.

Every five years, a CTRS® is required to recertify in order to demonstrate continuing professional knowledge and competence.

National Council for Therapeutic Recreation Certification®

Protecting and Promoting Since 1981

In order to meet the requirements for recertification, a CTRS® must choose one of the following two options:

OPTION 1

Work Experience and Continuing Education:

- 480 hours of professional work experience in the field of therapeutic recreation and...
- 50 hours of continuing education related to the NCTRC Job Analysis Knowledge Areas

OPTION 2

Pass the NCTRC Certification Exam:

- Submit the Exam Registration Form
  (Contact the NCTRC office to discuss which exam cycle corresponds with your recertification date.)

Login to your NCTRC account for applications and payment options.

Recertify and continue to possess the most well-recognized credential within the therapeutic recreation profession.